

OUTBREAK OF HIGHLY PATHOGENIC AVIAN INFLUENZA 2022/23

Important Information –Please read and take action

There are actions you need to take if you live within 10km of an infected premises.

Check the interactive map now!

Contact us immediately to register your birds!

Even if you have less than 50 poultry or birds, we need to know about you

Your help is required in the control of avian influenza. This vital information you provide will aid in the protection of your birds and those kept by others and support the resumption of normal conditions as soon as is possible.

Email your contact details to surveillance@apha.gov.uk or phone us on 03300 416 580 (Lines open 8:30-17:00 Monday to Friday)

Our team will complete a brief questionnaire with you, provide more detailed information and let you know what the next steps are.

Find out more information on avian influenza (bird flu) by visiting gov.scot/birdflu