

All persons with diarrhoea should remain off work or school until they have had no symptoms for 48 hours.

Some people in certain risk groups may be excluded from school or work until they are completely well and have also provided stool samples which have shown that they are clear of infection. The Health Protection Team will give you more information about this.

*...ō on n yo o s ad s
, y| o d o | , y| o d.*

The infected person should not prepare food. Soiled bedding and clothes should be washed on the hot cycle of your

